Emily
Karc

Founder and CEO

Our team began 2024 with a mission to bridge the gap between the average citizen and the reality of the lives of survivors of human sex trafficking. We have accomplished this through a radio interview, victim resource collaboration with Light Duty Ministry, through joining the NEPA Anti Human Trafficking Coalition, community outreach via our Angel Pack Ministry Partnership, three fundraisers and seven awareness events. Our heart for those caught in modern day slavery is that they would no longer be just a statistic one can easily dismiss. Rather a tangible person with feelings and emotions that cry for freedom in the night. Our job, my job, is to empower not only my team, but my community to become the light in dark places and to become the answered prayer every survivor needs. We have made huge strides in our efforts, but they have only just begun. We continue to chip away at raising the banner for the need for emergency housing and community awareness so that we as a nation will no longer hide from the things that scare us. But instead, become a wall of hope that pushes back against the darkness. Together, I believe we will see change come to Columbia County PA and beyond through continuing to provide hope, healing and restoration to everyone our ministry encounters - including you. You are our why and you are truly the hope they need.

With love,
Emily - Founder, CEO and Victim Advocate

The Well House Update

Update

We projected a $180k budget for renovations and we have already raised over 160K towards that goal. The house is 75% complete. We estimate that it should be finished by the end of May 2025.

The Well House will home up to 3 adult biological females, 18+, who are beginning their process of recovering from the trauma of sexual exploitation and abuse. Upon completing their 4-6 week stay, we will transition them to a long term restorative care home that best suits their individual needs.
